

1. Describe the qualities that make your educator, principal, or non-instructional staff exceptional.

1-2	3-4	5-6	7-8	9-10
The response lacks insight and details to paint a compelling picture of the qualities of the nominee.	The response provides information about the nominee with some details . However, it was missing insight and details that would make it more compelling .	Response provides an explanation and details about the qualities of the nominee. It was somewhat compelling .	Response paints a clear, well-explained, detailed, and compelling picture of the qualities of the nominee.	The response was extremely compelling. It was very clear, well-explained, and detailed. It truly demonstrated the qualities of the nominee.

2. Tell a story or give specific examples of how your nominee champions at least one of TEP's five values: Equity, Integrity, Service, Respect, and Resourcefulness.

1-2	3-4	5-6	7-8	9-10
Response does not provide enough information that relates to one or more of the values of TEP.	The response provides information about the nominee with some details . However, it lacked a clear connection to one or more values of TEP .	Response provides an explanation and details connecting the nominee to one or more values of TEP.	Response provides a clear, well-explained, and detailed explanation connecting the nominee to one or more values of TEP.	The response excels at explaining the nominee's connection to one or more of TEP's values. It is clear the nominee showcases excellence in their schools.

TOTAL POINTS _____ out of 20